

Match-making seminar for potential project promoters and donor project partners under the Health Programme

EEA Grants 2014-2021

The Ministry of Finance of the Czech Republic and the Ministry of Health of the Czech Republic in cooperation with the Norwegian Institute of Public Health, designated as the responsible authorities for the CZ-Health Programme, are organizing a match-making seminar on 16th of January, 2019. The seminar will gather potential project promoters and potential donor project partners as well as speakers engaged in the management of the CZ-Health Programme.

In 2019, the Open Calls for Proposals are expected to be launched. The Ministry of Finance in cooperation with the Programme Partners aims, amongst others, to initiate joint cooperation projects of mutual interest. In order to support bilateral project-level cooperation and encourage the establishment of donor partnership projects, the match-making seminar will be held in Prague (Kaiserštejnský palác, Malostranské náměstí 23/37) on Wednesday 16 January 2019. The goal of the seminar is to meet and network with potential counterparts and exchange ideas for joint projects.

Draft Agenda

1. Registration (morning coffee)
2. Welcome and introduction to the seminar
3. Presentation of the Programme and its expected outcomes
4. Expected results of bilateral cooperation
5. Bilateral cooperation within the Programme from the perspective of Donor Programme Partner
6. Good practices of bilateral cooperation in donor partnership projects
7. Discussions/exchange of ideas/match-making in topic-specific groups
8. Feedback from the group discussions
9. Brief sum-up and conclusions

For further details about the seminar please contact Petr Čermák: (Petr.Cermak@mzcr.cz).